

NO REST FOR THIRD DAY

Third Day has just finished a national US tour with Switchfoot, Jars Of Clay and Robert Randolph and the Family Band, but the touring's not stopping there.

This week, the highly successful band is on the road again with NeedToBreathe and Aussie band Revive.

Revive is best known for its summer hit Carefree. The group has been in America for the past year and will release its new CD Chorus Of The Saints to coincide with the tour. No news yet on when we're going to see the guys back in Australia.

COLMAN TO MAKE SNAP VISIT TO CELEBRATE DAD'S 70TH

Paul Colman will be in Australia next month to celebrate his father's 70th birthday.

Robert Colman is a celebrated singer and actor who has recorded close to 30 albums. Robert is the youngest person to ever win the prestigious Sun Aria Award. Paul will perform a concert in Brisbane with Claire Hazzard during the snap visit.

PC3'S BASSIST TOURS

A long time associate of Paul, Grant Norsworthy, the former bassist with pc3 and Sonicflood, returns to Australia next week for a series of worship events in various churches throughout NSW, Victoria and the ACT.

His 13-date church tour aims to bring what Grant calls a "fresh perspective" about the "true nature of worship, life and meaning and, above all, following Jesus".

This will be the first time since the trio disbanded that all three members of pc3 will be in Australia at the same time. No word of any surprise reunion.

Norsworthy recently concluded a successful NZ tour.
