

29 November 2008

EASTERFEST SCORES PC3 REUNION

Australia's Paul Colman Trio will reform for a one night only event at Easterfest in Toowoomba next April.

Paul, Phil and Grant will perform together for the first time since taking a break in February 2004.

Easterfest CEO Isaac Moody says securing the reunion event is a real coup for the festival.

"They'd be no Christian music group in Australia that has ever had the success of the Paul Colman Trio," Moody says.

"They're one of the biggest artists ever to play at the festival. We're so excited to have them coming back for one show only.

"We're expecting thousands of people to come, just because of them! This is a real coup for the festival," Isaac adds.

Other Easterfest 09 headliners include Rebecca St James, Austonville (that's Rebecca's brothers Joel and Luke), Audio Adrenaline, Thousand Foot Krutch, and Matt Corby.

Easterfest is Australia's largest Easter event.

SONFEST RETURNS FOR SUMMER

After a three year break, Sonfest is back.

The reinvigorated summer Christian music festival has moved from Boonah to Brisbane, from the cattle yards to a church, and from a three day event to one.

Atlanta crunk rockers Family Force Five headline the festival to be held at Brisbane's Citipointe Church on January 26.

Other acts to appear include Planet Of the Stereos, Fatis Valor, New Empire, Compliments of Gus, Candice Casagrande and Citipointe Live.

Sonfest spokesperson Dave Schenk says the festival was previously a major event on Brisbane's summer Christian music calendar.

"I think a lot of people were disappointed when the festival disappeared off the radar. But now we're bringing an event back to January, it just seemed natural it had to be Sonfest," Dave says.

Family Force Five is also appearing the NZ Parachute Festival January 23-26.

ADELAIDE SINGER WELL PLACED IN INTERNATIONAL SONG AWARDS

Finally, Adelaide based singer/songwriter Jade Ambroze is a finalist in the eighth Annual Independent Music Awards. Jade - who recently was placed third in the Australian Songwriting Awards - is in the Top five of the internationally acclaimed awards for her song More.