SIMEON RELEASES FILM CLIP

SIMEON SHINKFIELD and his band, known as Simeon, have finished filming a video to the song Not Calming Down which goes to #12 on TRAA this week.

Simeon created the video clip to draw awareness to the incredible needs of so many living in Niger; and to raise funds to help these people with much needed medicines, microscopes, glasses, crutches, cataract operations and more.

These projects, known collectively as the Not Calming Down 4 Niger projects, see Simeon partnering with CBM (Christian Blind Mission), an organisation which Shinkfield says has an "incredible track record working to rehabilitate people with disabilities in the world's poorest countries".

TANIA G RELEASES DIGITAL SINGLE

Tania G releases her first digital only single this week.

This Is My Life has been described as "a gentle caress of a summer breeze offering refreshment after a hot day" - an apt description for those experiencing consecutive days of 45C degrees (more than 110F degrees).

The new single features Tania's trademark relaxing and irresistible grooves combined with smooth soulful vocals.

The Melbourne based singer hopes the new song will be as big as her 2006 hits Lay It All Down (which went Top 10) and I Still Believe (which went Top 20).
