

18 April 2009

PC3's EASTERFEST REUNION - AN EPIC, MASTERFUL PERFORMANCE

It takes a special event to reunite one of the biggest bands in Australian Christian music after a five year break.

Easterfest happens to be just that event, and according to the event's Artist and Marketing Manager Rowan Brand, the Paul Colman Trio's return was nothing short of "an epic performance".

"PC3 is one of Australia's most prominent Christian music acts - ever," Brand said.

"To have them get together again at Easterfest has been a real honor and a privilege.

"Paul Colman is a master of performance," Rowan told TRAA.

"It was a real treat for those who attended the headline show on Saturday night to experience the Paul Colman Trio.

"Those who experienced the band in the past were able to re-engage with them, while younger audiences bonded with their music for the first time.

"It was really fascinating to observe."

Rowan said that Paul, Phil and Grant were as sharp as ever, blowing away a packed Easterfest crowd and providing one of the highlights of the three day festival.

NATASHA BEDINGFIELD MARRIES

Kiwi pop singer Natasha Bedingfield recently married US executive Matthew Robinson.

The 27 year old tied the knot during a 30 minute outdoor ceremony next to the Pacific Ocean at the Church Estates Vineyards in Malibu, California. The two had been dating since 2006.

Natasha said their wedding day was everything they'd hope it would be.

"It was simple, beautiful and natural - free from trappings or formalities," she said. "It was more about expressing our love for one another in front of those we hold dearest to us than anything else.

"We are now very much looking forward to spending the rest of our lives together. Love is hard to find, so when you do find it, hang on to it," she added

Bedingfield who is well known for pop hits like Pocketful of Sunshine, These Words and Unwritten, also has a long history in Christian music.

As a teenager, Bedingfield and her siblings, Daniel and Nikola, formed the short-lived Christian dance/electronic pop group, The DNA Algorithm, which performed at several Christian music festivals.

During the 1990s and early 2000s, Bedingfield composed and recorded songs for Hillsong London Church.

In 2004, several of her songs appeared on the church's live album Shout God's Fame and the Hillsong Kids CD Jesus Is My Superhero.

Natasha is working on a new album to release later this year.