HILLSONG PREVIEWS NEW PROJECT ONLINE

Hillsong Music Australia will release its latest album at the Hillsong conference next month.

Faith + Hope + Love will be released in multi-formats including CD and DVD.

Recorded live in March over three weekends, the project is Hillsong's 18th live album.

Darlene Zschech and Reuben Morgan lead the worship.

The album offers 13 songs of faith in the midst of personal circumstances, hope in Jesus, and love - one for another.

Hillsong will release the CD next month at its annual conference.

RAYSON RELEASES HYMNS PROJECT

AUSTRALIAN singer/songwriter Mike Rayson has just released a new hymns album.

Even So: 1 was recorded in Nashville and features renowned Australian guitarist Tommy Emmanuel.

Mike is best known for the Save Me.

What's different about the new album is it's a complete service of corporate worship on CD.

Sydney's Hope 103.2 FM radio announcers Joanne Traeger and Ray Kington are among the readers on the album.

This CD is available from digital music providers.
